

As part of "MIND THE GAP": performative-symposium

Workshop with artist AravindAdyanthaya

12-15 places only

Book your place now!

10:30am - 12:30 pm, Thursday 2nd May

Lakeside Theatre studio, University of Essex (Colchester)

This workshop would be suitable for anyone interested in creative writing, literature, theatre and performance. It will explore the technique of 'Writing Act', a form of theatrical poetics that investigates the staging of the act of writing. Through the use of a video projection the written on the computer becomes the setting.

Participants will need to bring a laptop.

If you do not have one, please get in touch and we will try to help.

To book your place, please contact performthegap@gmail.com until 22, April.
Workshop will be followed by a symposium with performances + speakers' presentations.